

Michael Evans
CEO & Co-Founder, The Vines of Mendoza

Michael Evans is the Chief Executive Officer of The Vines of Mendoza. Inspired by the quality of the wines and Mendoza's culture upon his arrival in 2004, he and business partner Pablo Gimenez-Riili determined there was a great opportunity to build a high quality, tourist-friendly wine destination and enterprise in the region. They've since sold 97 Private Vineyard Estates to owners from around the globe, including prominent culinary and wine industry notables.

Previously, Michael used his business development, sales, and marketing expertise to build organizations and infrastructure for numerous wireless, telecom, non-profit sector and political ventures. He also held senior roles at the Cellular Telecommunications and Internet Association Foundation, Rock the Vote, iNetNow and Youth Service America. Michael is a passionate photographer and world traveler.
