

Pablo Gimenez-Riili
President & Co-Founder, The Vines of Mendoza

Pablo Gimenez-Riili, born and raised in Mendoza Argentina, has spent much of his life involved in real estate and wine production, his family's businesses for generations. After earning his Juris Doctorate from the University of Mendoza, and a career in law, he worked as a real estate developer with Gimenez Riili Developers from 1998-2004. There, he managed all aspects of real estate development from selling land to coordinating home production for high-end turnkey homes.

Pablo then co-founded of The Vines of Mendoza with Michael Evans in 2005 and serves as President, overseeing all vineyard and winemaking operations, in addition to Latin American sales. He lives in Mendoza, where he enjoys spending time with his family. He also plays soccer.